Table 4-3 RECREATION PERMITS, LEASES, AND PASSPORTS ON PUBLIC LANDS ADMINISTERED BY THE BLM BY STATE, FISCAL YEAR 2003 – CONTINUED

- /a/ The Arizona State Office administers BLM public lands in California along the Colorado River; the California State Office administers BLM public lands in Nevada; the Eastern States Office administers BLM public lands in the 31 States east of and bordering on the Mississippi River; the Montana State Office administers BLM public lands in North and South Dakota; the New Mexico State Office administers BLM public lands in Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas; the Oregon State Office administers BLM public lands in Washington; and the Wyoming State Office administers BLM Public Lands in Nebraska.
- /b/ Entrance Permits are issued for entry into some Visitor Centers, National Conservation Areas, and other designated recreation sites. Golden Eagle Passports are accepted at these sites in lieu of payment.
- /c/ Daily Use Permits are issued for recreation use of facilities or services provided by the federal government, such as campgrounds, day use areas, or boat ramps.
- /d/ Special Recreation Permits are issued for non-commercial use in certain A special areas, such as for Long Term Visitor Areas, wilderness areas, river use, and backcountry hiking or camping.
- /e/ Commercial Special Recreation Permits are issued to entities conducting business on public lands, for the purpose of providing recreational opportunities or services, without permanent facilities and less than 5 years. These are issued to outfitters, guides, vendors, and commercial competitive event organizers. Special Recreation Permits for Competitive and Organized Group Events are also included in the category. Active permits are those issued in previous fiscal years, and still in effect during this reporting year. Issued permits are those new permits authorized during this reporting year. Revenues are for the total of both Active and Issued during this reporting year.
- /f/ Recreation concession leases are issued to entities conducting business on public lands, for the purpose of providing recreational opportunities or services, with permanent facilities. This category also includes the remaining recreation resident leases in the Colorado River Corridor in Arizona and California. The revenues reported in this table are only the fees which are directed to recreation deposit accounts, and do not include the land use fees, which are accounted for in Table 3-5 (Non-Specific Land Use Authorizations).
- /g/ Golden Passports (Eagle, Age, and Access) are issued for the purpose of providing discounts for certain entrance fees and daily use fees at federal facilities. Included in this count and revenues are the fees collected for National Park Service Holograms.
